

Art Alliance of Greensboro

Printmaking Workshops

Instructor: Albert Kauslick

Relief printing-The primary craft that allowed fine art and knowledge to be reproduced for the many rather than the few. Some supplies needed- call for more info! Pre-registration is required. Class size limited.

Linoleum blocks:

Class meets two consecutive Saturdays: January 30 & February 6, 1-4pm
Cost: $60

Class meets in room #127 or the Greensboro Cultural Center, first floor.

Parking is available on the street surrounding the building and in the Church Street parking deck located behind the Cultural Center.

Please call Art Alliance at 336.373.2725 or email artalliancegso@gmail.com with any questions.

Students should bring

- a simple drawing with little modeling, about 6 x 6, if you don't bring the drawing come prepared with an idea...
- And a metal spoon
- X-acto knife with #5 red handle
- If you have lino cutting tools please bring them, but we have several sets too!

Please call the office at 336/373-2725 and we can take your credit card information over the phone, or you may mail us a check. Please make sure we have your payment at least one week before class begins.

Art Alliance of Greensboro
200 N. Davie Street, Box 1
Greensboro, NC 27401

www.artalliancegso.com

Art Alliance was formed in 1998 with the mission of providing quality visual art experiences at affordable prices for adults and children. Local and regional artists, well-trained in their fields, teach these creative classes and workshops, which range from pottery and drawing to stained glass and sculpture. In collaboration with other community and arts organizations Art Alliance strives to meet the art experience needs of Greensboro's diverse community.